Sundance Mountain Resort and UVU Present "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" July 20 – August 12 at the Sundance Outdoor Amphitheater

For Immediate Release

SUNDANCE, Utah – Experience the Andrew Lloyd Webber classic Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat this summer from July 20 – August 12 at the Sundance Outdoor Amphitheater. The production is presented in partnership with Utah Valley University.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is the 10th musical produced by Sundance and UVU, a partnership established in 2008. The two organizations draw on talented community actors and UVU and Sundance professionals to create an exciting and dynamic show. Fodor's Travel named the Sundance Summer Theatre one of the 10 Best Outdoor Theater Experiences in the country for both 2015 and 2016.

"The Sundance Summer Theatre has become a season favorite and tradition at Sundance," said Mari Turner, Programming Manager and Producer at Sundance Mountain Resort. "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat promises to be another memorable experience, with a phenomenal team, including local actors and crew."

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is based on the story of Joseph in Egypt from the book of Genesis in the Bible. The audience follows Joseph's experiences from his brothers' betrayal to his eventual triumph in Egypt and his saving of the kingdom. Known for its signature music and family-friendly storyline, the show has remained popular since its premier in 1970.

"We're ecstatic to team up with Sundance for Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," said Lisa Hall Hagen, UVU Theater Department Chair and Producer at UVU. "This show is a classic: from the upbeat, recognizable music to the entertaining and emotional story. I'm excited to bring Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat to our audiences in such a beautiful mountain setting."
