Sundance Mountain Resort's Kids Camp Join us for a summer of learning and fun June 5-August 4, 2017

(Sundance, UT) April, 2017 - Sundance Mountain Resort is excited announce its 2017 Summer Kids Camp! The camp will run weekly from June to August and is committed to creating a valuable learning experience for children through adventures, exploration and games that provide new insights into nature, art, and culture.

Sundance Kids Camp is an active nature day camp held Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with unique activities that encompass artistic expression, active play, science exploration, journaling and more. This year's schedule features a focus on art, camping skills, outdoor exercise, local nature education and native animal exploration.

"Much thought and planning has gone into the new Sundance Kids Camp," said Chad Linebaugh, Sundance General Manager. "The mission of Kids Camp is to inspire, educate and create. We want kids to have a great time, while learning and exploring art and nature in the beautiful setting of Sundance Resort."

Sundance Resort offers the perfect place to explore and learn about nature and enjoy physical activities such as hiking, games and scavenger hunts. Camp leaders are highly trained and strive to support the physical, emotional, social and cognitive needs of each child. Cost of the camp is $59 for a single day, and $53 each additional sibling. For the full week cost is $245, and $215 for each additional sibling. Children will enjoy an active day on the mountain filled with adventure, games and learning.

"We are very excited for this year's Kids Camp," said Lindsay Butrum, Kids Camp Director. "Our Campers will be engaged in learning while having fun by exploring creative arts, energizing with active play and investigating the wonders of science and the natural environment. Exciting weekly themes will inspire our daily adventures in this beautiful and unique mountain environment."

Camp space is limited and advanced reservations are required. Please make your reservations at least two weeks in advance. Call 801-223-4129 or email kidscamp@sundance-utah.com to register. You may also register online at www.sundanceresort.com/kidscamp.

MOUNTAIN RESORT

2017 Schedule

June 5-19: Camping Comrades

Practice basic outdoor camping skills, learn about Leave No Trace™, explore local plant and animal species and learn about fun activities to use on the next family camping trip. Activities this week include creating constellation paintings and going on a compass treasure hunt.

June 12-16: Art Adventures

Discover your inner artist this week as campers explore different art mediums such as painting, sculpture and dance and learn about famous artists. Activities include examining Monet's style in a painting and a visit to the Sundance Art Studio.

June 19-23: Wilderness Work Out

Enjoy outdoor activities like yoga, hiking, relays, martial arts and obstacle courses and learn why it is important to be active and healthy. Activities this week include a visit from martial arts experts teaching the basics of self-defense and creating a selfie collage.

June 26-30: Science in Nature

Explore nature's sciences by engaging in fun and interesting experiments. Campers will also explore how art and science connect in our natural world. Activities this week include creating chemical volcanoes and fossil exploration.

July 3-7 (no camp July 4): Discovering Drama

Campers will be introduced to theatre through drama, music, movement, and visual art. Campers will also learn about Sundance's rich history of theatre. Activities this week will include puppet-making and improvisation techniques.

July 10-14: Wasatch Wild

Learn what makes the Wasatch Mountains unique through stories, games, nature hunts and art. Activities this week include a special trip to Bear Claw peak, recreating the legends of Timpanogos, and creating kachina dolls like the ones in the Sundance Tree Room.

July 17-21: Animal Adaptations

Explore native animal species and their amazing adaptations and use animals as a source of inspiration for art. Activities this week include fly-fishing demonstrations and designing your own animal.

July 24-28: Sundance Survivor

Learn survival basics to use in the wilderness, including basic first aid skills. Activities this week include a visit with the North Fork Fire Department, making paracord bracelets and learning about natural remedies.
