

Mountainfilm on Tour to Screen at Sundance Mountain Resort November 10 and 11

(Sundance Utah | September 26, 2023) – Mountainfilm on Tour is excited to announce an upcoming series of screenings at the iconic Sundance Mountain Resort. The selected productions are two documentary films titled “Indominable Spirit” and “The Medley”, which both celebrate adventure, activism, social justice, environment and, most importantly, the indomitable human spirit. These films, along with the communities they were fostered in, bring together a community of filmmakers and forward-thinking audiences.

This Mountainfilm on Tour is hosted by Sundance Mountain Resort in partnership with The North Face. Curated from the annual Mountainfilm festival in Telluride, Colorado, the organization’s underlying mission is to inspire audiences worldwide to create a better world by helping them tap into the power of film, art, and ideas. This mission, combined with Sundance’s core values of nature, art, and community, made the resort a natural fit for a Mountainfilm screening venue.

“We’re very much looking forward to these screenings and the changes we hope they will inspire,” explains Mari Turner, Sundance’s Programming Manager. “Opening our eyes to these films helps us recognize our place in the world, and the special part we all play in preserving it and caring for it. Sundance Resort hopes to encourage all its visitors to be better stewards of their environments, and we believe these films will inspire people to do the same.”

The Sundance screenings will be held on November 10th and 11th at 7 PM at the resort’s screening room. Tickets for the select screenings will be $20 per person and are available for purchase here.
